Blessed G/Michael Catholic Secondary School

Semester 1 Citizenship Mid1 Examination for Grade9

Academic Year: 2024 / 2018 E.C. Time Allowed: 1:30'

Name: _____ Grade & Sec: Grade9 _____ R.No: _____

I. Write 'True' if the statement is correct and 'False' if it is incorrect.

____ 1. Ethics is the same as morality, and the terms can be used interchangeably.

____ 2. A person with integrity always aligns their actions with their words.

____ 3. Ethics only deals with personal feelings and opinions, not real-life actions.

____ 4. One of the key values of ethics is disobedience to the law when it feels inconvenient.

____ 5. Respect means treating others with dignity, regardless of differences in background.

____ 6. Concern for others excludes people with disabilities, as they require separate laws.

____ 7. Promise-keeping is a part of integrity that strengthens trust and relationships.

II. Match the items under Column A with the correct descriptions under Column B.

8. Match: Which ethical value describes "Being honest, reliable, and morally upright"?

A. Obeying the law
B. Integrity
C. Loyalty
D. Excellence

9. Match: Which civic duty involves "Following rules and upholding justice"?

A. Obeying the law
B. Loyalty
C. Trustworthiness
D. Excellence

10. Match: Which term corresponds to "Being honest and dependable in relationships"?

A. Trustworthiness
B. Excellence
C. Loyalty
D. Integrity

11. Match: Which term is defined as "Being faithful to individuals, society, and country"?

A. Excellence
B. Loyalty
C. Trustworthiness
D. Obeying the law

12. Match: Which quality entails "Striving for quality and constant self-improvement"?

A. Loyalty
B. Trustworthiness
C. Excellence
D. Integrity

III. Choose the best answer among the given alternatives.

____ 13. A society with ethical citizens is characterized by _____

A. Corruption and injustice.
B. Division and mistrust.
C. Sustainable peace, unity, and rule of law.
D. Violence and disorder.

____ 14. Theoretical ethics is mainly concerned with _____

A. How to apply laws.
B. Business rules.
C. Emotional intelligence.
D. The origin and nature of moral judgments.

____ 15. Commitment to excellence requires to _____

A. Avoiding hard work.
B. Dependence on others.
C. Dedication, perseverance, and self-improvement.
D. Ignoring personal growth.

____ 16. What we learn from Ethics?

A. Compete aggressively.
B. Ignore community needs.
C. Focus only on personal benefit.
D. Act in morally sound ways and avoid unethical actions.

____ 17. What does it mean respect for humanity?

A. Supporting only people of similar background.
B. Focusing only on oneself.
C. Treating all people equally regardless of differences.
D. Avoiding interaction with others.

____ 18. The term ethics originates from the Greek word ethos, which means:

A. Customs, habits, or character.
B. Religion and belief.
C. Justice and fairness.
D. Law and order.

____ 19. Being free from addiction is considered an attribute of _____

A. Hardworking nature. B. Intellectual ability. C. Social responsibility. D. True integrity.

____ 20. Ethical values serve as:

A. Legal restrictions.
B. Social traditions.
C. Guiding principles to distinguish right from wrong.
D. Religious commandments.

____ 21. Which of the following is not listed as a key ethical value?

A. Laziness. B. Honesty. C. Integrity. D. Fairness.

____ 22. What is the meaning of Integrity?

A. Following all traditions blindly.
B. Staying true to moral principles in both private and public life.
C. Seeking personal success at any cost.
D. Being influenced by others' opinions.

____ 23. Ethics mainly deals with:

A. Political systems.
B. Economic theories.
C. Religious rituals.
D. Moral principles and values guiding human behavior.

____ 24. A person with integrity is characterized by:

A. Dishonesty and inconsistency.
B. Selfishness and jealousy.
C. Honesty, trustworthiness, and consistency.
D. Laziness and irresponsibility.

____ 25. Ethical values are essential for citizens. Why? B/c

A. Increase personal wealth.
B. Encourage lawlessness.
C. Promote individualism.
D. Build a peaceful, just, and harmonious society.

____ 26. Practical ethics focuses on:

A. Writing moral laws.
B. Understanding cultural values.
C. Conducting philosophical research only.
D. Applying moral principles in real-life situations.

____ 27. Abiding by the law ensures:

A. Fairness, justice, and order.
B. Weak moral values.
C. Social disorder.
D. Ignorance of ethics.

____ 28. Without ethical guidelines, society would _____

A. Be more productive.
B. Have fewer conflicts.
C. Be difficult to navigate responsibly.
D. Improve its moral standards naturally.

____ 29. Ethics is important in daily life because it helps us:

A. Control others.
B. Earn more wealth.
C. Follow traditions without questioning.
D. Decide what is acceptable and unacceptable behavior.

____ 30. Promise-keeping as an ethical value strengthens:

A. Relationships and trust.
B. Competition and rivalry.
C. Individual wealth.
D. Social conflict.